

About the Authors

HERTHA ORGLER, Alwin Court, 61 Gloucester Road, London, S.W. 7, England, is an Adlerian psychologist and was a co-worker of Dr. Alfred Adler for many years. She is the author of a well known publication, Alfred Adler: The Man and His Works.

JEAN CRIPPS, R.F.D. 2, Box 125, Hockessin, Delaware 19707, together with Ann Tuites and Nancy Blocklinger are teachers in the Friends School in Wilmington, Delaware. They are active members of the Family Education Center of Wilmington. Mrs. Cripps is a member of the Board of Directors and Mrs. Blocklinger is a coordinator of educational materials.

BERNICE GRUNWALD, 4800 Chicago Beach Drive, Chicago, Illinois 60615 was a successful elementary teacher in the Gary, Indiana schools for a number of years. She is now on the staff of the Alfred Adler Institute of Chicago. Her busy schedule includes workshops, lectures, and a consultant to public schools.

FATHER JOSEPH HART, is director of the counseling office at St. Michael's College, Winooski, Vermont. He is an ordained priest of the Society of St. Edmund. He earned his Ph.D. at the Catholic University, Washington, D.C. He is now studying at the Alfred Adler Institute of Chicago toward a certificate in psychotherapy. He will return to St. Michael's in June.

WALTER O'CONNELL, Ph.D. Veterans Administration Hospital, Houston, Texas 77031, is a V.A. resident psychologist and consultant for St. Joseph's Hospital. Psychiatric Quarterly, Journal of Existentialism, Journal of Individual Psychology, and Rand-McNally have published his writings.